Holy Women, Holy Men - Church Publishing, 2010

Fully revised and expanded, this new work is the first major revision of the liturgical calendar of the Episcopal Church in more than 40 years! It is the official revision of Lesser Feasts and Fasts and authorized by the 2009 General Convention. All commemorations in Lesser Feasts and Fasts have been retained, and many new ones added. Three scripture readings (instead of current two) are provided for all minor holy days. Additional new material includes a votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary, many more ecumenical commemorations, plus a proper for space exploration. For years the oft revised volume, Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF), has served parishes and individuals mark part of the holiness of each day by providing Scripture readings, a collect, a Eucharistic preface, and a narrative about those remembered on the church's calendar that day whose lives have witnessed to the grace of God. Holy Women, Holy Men (HWHM) is a major effort to revise, but also to expand and enrich LFF. Where LFF provided two readings (gospel and other New Testament) plus a psalm, HWHM adds an Old Testament citation. Where LFF was limited to few non-Anglicans in the post-reformation period (and few non-Episcopalians after 1789), HWHM dramatically broadens appreciation for other Christians and their traditions. Over-emphasis on clergy is redressed by additional laity, males by females, and "in-church" activities by contributions well beyond the workings of institutional agendas. These almost daily commemorations occupy over 600 of the book's 785 pages, by far the lion's share of its content. Remaining sections address: principles of revision and guides for future revision; liturgical propers for seasons (Advent/Christmas, Lent, and Easter); and new propers for a miscellany of propers usable with individuals (or events) not officially listed in the formal calendar. Two cycles of propers for daily Eucharist are also included, one covering a six week period, the other a two year cycle.

Christ-Walk, Finding True Worship and the Kingdom of God - Eugene C. Shults, Sr. 1999-12

I am just an ORDINARY GIRL. Not religious in any way. But one day I got on my knees and cried out to God for some help, some answers and direction....and HE Spoke to me. Really. Not in a big booming voice from beyond, but through my pen on paper. My hand began writing and I struggled to keep up for 5 years. I was the vessel for hundreds of pages of information that came through me, not from me. Nothing like that had ever happened to me before. I meditated and listened and God spoke to me. He speaks to everyone if we would just sit still and listen. I am going to show you how to do that. God wants me to talk to you about HIM. So I put his words in this book to share with others. In an Ordinary Girl's Dialogue With God, God told me WHY we are all here, what HE wants from us. HE told me what he wants from you. He told me the meaning of life and answered ALL the big questions I had ever had. Finally some answers! And I have several messages for YOU from God about how to live a happy, loving life, filled with all you desire and in deep connection to HIM. You can finally learn why YOU are here. It's amazing! Do you want to be SUCCESSFUL? It's time for YOU to break through to the next level of your life. Listen, God has created you to do magnificent things. Within you already have ALL you need to succeed. It doesn't matter if you doubted yourself in the past. We all have. TODAY'S a new day. Forget about the past and everything that happened in it. TODAY you can create whatever you want. Today is a blank canvass. You are Divine Energy from Source and within you is Divine Power to create. Use it! Oprah Winfrey invited author Wendy Alane Wright on her show to discuss Wright's uncanny ability to create through the power of attraction. Wright tells readers how manifesting works. How you think is as important as what you think about in creating the life you want to live. The law of attraction plays a huge role in An Ordinary Girl's Dialogue With God, as God explains that your purpose in this life is to create the life you want to live and to remember who you are, a spiritual being having a physical experience. What God most wants you to know is that and God is within you guiding you at all times, if you just get silent and listen you will hear Him, for he talks to everyone- not just Christians, or preachers, or ministers, or priests or the Dali Lama- but ordinary people like you and me.. If you are curious about other perspectives on spirituality, you will enjoy this book. If you are looking for a different perspective than the one you were raised with, especially one that is less threatening, you may find this to be quite enlightening. This book is well written and very easy to read, and, hard to put down. It is not Biblical and if you think God only talks to Christians in the bible then this is not the book for you. (What type of God only selects one kind of people to speak to?) It is an enticing, captivating, and insightful book. If you are seeking to know God independently of religion, you will deeply appreciate what "An Ordinary Girl's Dialogue With God" has to say. You will read this book many times, and every time you read it you will continue to get new wisdom. There are revolutionary tools in this book called Contrary Actions, which if you use them, your will change your life. That's a guarantee. There is a higher path than yours. Through Meditation and Prayer you will get to know yourself and God better than you ever have. When you get out of your own way and let God speak to you, the sky's the limit. Contrary Actions will transform your marriage, relationships, career, finances, and ultimately your LIFE! When you practice the principles in this book, your life will NOT stay the same. This is a must read for anyone who wants to really know God and create the life you dream of.

The Church at Sea (Die Meereskirche); a Collection of Spiritual Songs ... - Lewis Rehfuess 1869

The Publishers Weekly - 1985

Deadly Dunstone - Jerry Martin 2002-02-27

Jesus appeared to Francis of Assisi in 1205 and said three words, 'Repair my House!' Clearly, Jesus commanded a return to His Apostolic church and its prime mission to bring the kingdom of God to earth. Two great movements attempted this repair, the Spiritual Franciscans and the Protestant Reformation. It is equally clear is that both movements ultimately failed, leaving Christianity deeply embedded in religiosity, defined as religion by regimentation. Christian worship has been organized, but human organization and the freedom-loving Spirit of God do not mix. As the true worship of God recedes from our churches, our culture approaches a moral abyss. Desperately, our nation, our culture, and our churches need to return to the life-directing faith path of the apostolic walk. Called the Christ-Walk in this text, this precious path of life is defined by Isaiah 35:8. And a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness. Unrecognized, the unfulfilled commitment of Jesus' 1205 request is still upon each of us. By seeking the will of God in the Christ-Walk, each saint can satisfy that command. There, the saint can reach the fullness of Jesus' love, and incrementally return the church to its original apostolic mission vector. In this effort, each saint can repair Jesus' House working from the bottom up. Let us agree, we have had enough of religion! Look, there is no difference in the faith and fervor of the world's religions, existing in equal measure around the world. No, humanity needs a greater thing than religiosity. We need an integrated faith walk influencing every thought and action of our lives. And at this level of life-long pervasiveness, humans can only abide God's love, dwelling within agape love. Humanity will not excel in agape love until it can reach the integrity of Jesus' love found most profusely in the Christ-Walk. Once agape love is found as a life style not a social syntax or as the practiced facade, then agape civilization beckons. Dynamic and flexible, the Christ-Walk is customized for each human walking this way. It cannot be put into a precisely defined structure as a mass production process. It is emphatically, not religiosity. Rather, it is adult Christian food, the true subsequence of life and the real reason for human existence. But the Christ-Walk is not a gift, it requires the search spoken of in Mathew 6:33. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness... hence, seeking representing the true divide in Christianity separating the carnal from the spiritual saint thus separating Jesus' true church from the religious impersonation. Today, Jesus' true church is found where it is found, one member here, another there. Tomorrow, under the influence of the Spirit's massive outpouring, the true church will rise from the Christ-Walk, prevailing across America and several other countries, seriously changing these cultures. Although the Christ-Walk is unique to each human, we can outline the highpoint characteristics of that walk, allowing a rough measurement for each soul traversing this path. Basically, the Christ-Walk is composed of these sub-paths: Walk to wholeness Attenuation path to sanctification featuring the conversion of both the alert and subconscious mind to Jesus' salvation Overcoming walk to discipleship in Jesus Christ This text is built under the guidance of the Spirit to assist those desiring to walk the way of Holiness, there to experience true worship of the Father. Yet, this book is also for those not now interested in Christ, certain of their current belief patterns. Within most of these souls resides a restlessness, vague and undefined. Put aside your preconceived ideas about the Christian religion and seek out the freshness of Jesus' faith walk. Here, in these pages, you can find the answer to your unease, understand the need for another dimension in our

Take your children and youth for a walk with Jesus

Christ Walk Kids - Anna Fitch Courie 2016-09-01

- Builds on success of Christ Walk (for adults) -- an ecumenical audience
- Promotes healthy, Christian exercise for tweens and teens
- Provides a pathway for youth to healthy, biblically based practices

Developed as a companion to Christ Walk: A 40-Day Spiritual Fitness Program, new Christ Walk Kids is an exciting 40-day journey for youth (ages 11 and up) to explore mind, body, and spiritual health while setting physical goals by committing to walk different routes based on routes in the Bible. Each chapter explores a topic that everyone thinks about, but not everyone knows how to address. Anna Courie opens up a discussion with youth about health topics they think and talk about among themselves, but puts the dialogue in the perspective of spiritual development. Key to the success of this outline is that each day there are topics for youth and parents and/or youth leaders to use as they explore health in a safe environment. Youth are encouraged to participate fully in the Christ Walk program by physical challenges (walking, running, or biking "biblical" routes); mental challenges (deep discussion and thoughtfulness of youth health risks); and spiritual challenges (biblical references and spiritually grounded self-development). Youth and parents are urged to participate together in the Christ Walk program so that the church can address the health of the entire family holistically: mind, body, and spirit.

As I say in the opening chapter, 'What the Gospel writers don't seem to scrimp on are stories of Jesus eating, or at least stories about Jesus and food. He eats, feeds, talks about food, and even calls himself the Bread of Life, right down to that last night in the Upper Room...where they sat around the table and he wrapped it all up with a meal—The Meal—as his ultimate metaphor.'" —from the Introduction
