No Smoke No Fire - Dave Jones 2012-03-07

Dave Jones is one of the most respected managers in football, who took Cardiff to the FA Cup Final and Wolves to the Premier League. But few fans could possibly identify with the anguish and turmoil that blighted his life. A family man and loving father of four children, Dave's world was turned upside down when, while manager of Southampton, he was charged with child abuse relating to his time working as a care worker. This is the acclaimed tale of his life as a player and manager, and explains how he dealt with those terrible false accusations and how, against all the odds, he picked up the pieces and resumed a highly successful managerial career.
